AEDV HIGHLIGHTS
27TH EADV CONGRESS
12-16 September 2018
PARIS, France
Onychology and Trichology

Dra. Cristina Serrano
Attendents

- Cicatricial alopecias – Dr. Ralph Trüeb
- Alopecia areata and differential diagnosis – Dra. Regina Betz
- Iatrogenic alopecias and their prevention – Dr. Jerry Shapiro
• Cicatricial alopecias – Dr. Ralph Trüeb

- LPP: topical clobetasol propionate 1 month twice daily, 3 months daily, thereafter every second day + oral doxycycline 100-200 mg daily for 3-6 months
  - Others: hydroxychloroquine, cyclosporine, mycophenolate mofetilo
  - Surgical reduction of patches of scarring alopecia during immunosuppressions with 2.5-5 mg/kg oral cyclosporine A.

• Chronic cutaneous lupus erythematosus: intralesional triamcinolone acetonide 10 mg/ml every 4 weeks in combination with oral hydroxicloroquine, first 4 weeks 2x200 mg daily, thereafter 200 mg daily + 1200 IU vit E + 500 mg vit C daily + photoprotection.

• Decalvans folliculitis: Fucidic acid 500 mg /8h daily + zinc Aspartate 30 mg
  - Second line: rifampicine + clindamicine
• Fibrosing alopecia in a pattern distribution: topical minoxidil 5% + 0.2% triamcinolone acetonide lotion + oral hydroxychloroquine

• Central centrifugal cicatricial alopecia: 100 mg / daily oral doxycycline + topical minoxidil 5% + 0.2% triamcinolone acetonide lotion

• AFF:

Recommend cessation of sunscreen use or not?
• Alopecia areata and differential diagnosis – Dra. Regina Betz
  • * Aetiopathogenesis

• Iatrogenic alopecias and their prevention – Dr. Jerry Shapiro
  • Chemotherapy induced alopecia
  • Radiotherapy induced alopecia
  • EGFR inhibitors induced alopecia (diffuse – scarring alopecia: erlotinib, afatinib…)
  • Anti PD1/anti PDL1 induced alopecia (areata : ipilimumab)
  • Endocrine therapy induced alopecia:
    • 112 breast cancer patients with EIA (aromatase inhibitors 67% tamoxifen 33%)
    • Mean time to alopecia development was 16.8 mons (1-91 months range)
    • Clinically and by dermoscopy mimic the pattern of AGA
    • Preventive strategies: scalp cooling *